

Please take careful consideration in your decision on media ownership. The American people depend on Communication sources for a free public forum of ideas, it is important to our democracy that ownership of these types of media (radio, TV, newspapers etc.) is not limited to a few large mass media owners. The future of this country may be in your hands in this decision.